

Naturskyddsföreningen

Jordens
Vänner

Friends of the Earth Sweden

Public participation from an NGO perspective

June 20, 2022

Johan Swahn

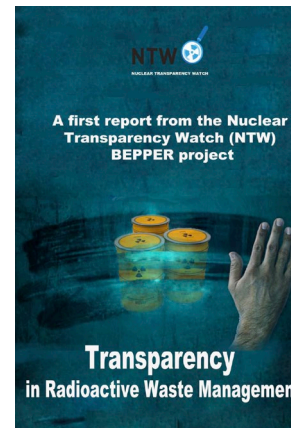

The Swedish NGO Office for Nuclear Waste Review, MKG

johan.swahn@mkg.se, mobile: +46 70 4673731

Fjällgatan 2, SE-413 17 Göteborg, SWEDEN,

Tel: +46 31 7110092 <http://www.mkg.se/en>

- Aarhus Convention
 - Access to information
 - Access to public participation
 - Access to justice

(<https://unece.org/environment-policy/public-participation>, <https://ec.europa.eu/environment/Aarhus>)

- BEPPER report from Nuclear Transparency Watch (NTW)
 - Aarhus Convention + Access to resources
 - Improving transparency to give better safety and security

(<http://www.nuclear-transparency-watch.eu/a-la-une/new-publication-bepper-report.html>)

- Civil Society participation in EURAD
- Personal experiences
 - Access to resources allows effective and sustainable public participation
 - Access to justice is very important
 - It is vital that public access to information also applies to the implementor of nuclear projects as well as to all research carried out